★ Recommended: Regents or AP American History and/or teacher recommendation

Macroeconomics is designed for the highly motivated student and is equivalent to a college level introductory course. College level textbooks, readings and resources will be used. This special honors program replaces the state mandated Economics course normally required for graduation. The course analyzes changes in aggregate supply and demand, the role of government in the economy, and the impact of foreign trade. Outside research and class presentations are required. AP exam offered in in May, and school-prepared exam is given at the end of the semester.

Economics

2023 Grade 12

½ credit

This one-semester course in micro- and macro-economics provides an understanding of the principles of economics and how they apply to various elements of the economy, including consumers, business, labor and the government. Comparisons of competing economic systems and major components of the global economy will be made. In addition, students will compete with other schools in a stock market simulation. A local final exam is given at the end of the course. This course is a graduation requirement per New York State.

Participation in Government

2012 Grade 12

½ credit

Focus is current national and international problems affecting the United States. Discussion is directed toward conflicting opinions on these issues and possible resolution of disagreement. Much emphasis on daily current events. Reports required on daily news topics and also broader issues based on media center research. Final exam is a school exam.

AP Psychology

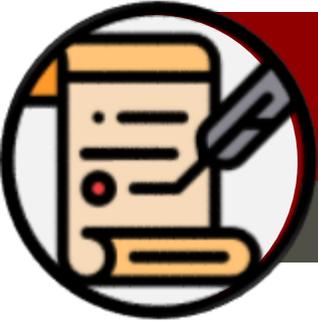

2029 Grades 11,12

1 credit

★ Recommended: Regents or AP American History and/or teacher recommendation

The course work is rigorous, with high expectations regarding student commitment and motivation. Students who have a history of attendance issues are discouraged from registering for this course. Students will be required to master psychology concepts and vocabulary terms. Course work includes outside reading from the college level textbook, upper-level writing, and projects with deadlines, which will count as test grades. Enrichment activities include guest speakers, debates, videos and presentations. Students will also be given the opportunity to earn college credit in May with the AP exam.

Criminal Law

2030 Grades 11,12

½ credit

This course offers an examination of causes, effects, and possible solutions to crime in the United States. Debates, guest speakers, a mock trial, and a field trip are used to offer real-world examples of the problems facing the criminal justice system and society in America today.

Leadership in Action

1416 Grade 12

1 credit

This one-credit course is project-based, with students utilizing a project-planning model to make a positive difference in the school and community. Students will exhibit responsibility, perseverance, respect and integrity while working as teams to set goals, design timelines, write proposals, create publicity, evaluate outcomes and write final reports. Leadership in Action students work in teams and complete one major project per quarter. Examples of past projects include:

- Lancaster-Depew Week and Spirit Week activities such as the Bonfire, Motorcade, Spirit Assemblies, Powder Puff Game, Homecoming Dance, Spirit Bowl, Mr. Lancaster, Building Decorations, etc.
- Social activities such as the Courtyard Dance, Freshman Mixer, Spring Courtyard Dance, Prom, Homecoming, etc.
- Holiday projects such as Jingle Links, Cookie Marathon, Coloring Contest, Holiday Food Drive, Santa Grams, Christmas Tree Contest, Building Decorations, etc.
- Senior Class projects such as Red Cross Blood Drives, Senior Mural, Senior Dinner Dance, Senior Apparel Sale, Senior Day, Senior Recognition Program, etc.
- Community service projects such as Group Home Socials, Food Drives, US Troop Support Program, Project Clean Your Locker, Lancaster Youth Bureau Holiday Distribution, etc.
- School service projects such as Freshman Orientation, 8th Grade Information Night, Recycling, and Appreciation Luncheons for various LCSD employee groups, Class Mural Revitalization, SOAR, etc.

Students must complete assignments outside of class time as a component of their quarterly grade. During each quarter, students must complete 15 school and 10 community service hours.

Goals of the Course

- To further develop and enhance your leadership skills
- To learn and grow through experience
- To foster the development of life-long community servants
- To help you discover your passion
- To make a positive impact on your school and community
- To successfully develop projects in a small group setting
- To understand and utilize a Project Planning Model
- To help you practice creative problem solving methods
- To give you the opportunity to work with different individuals in a small group
- To cultivate your communication and listening skills
- To carry on traditional LHS events/programs
- To develop and institute new programs which meet the needs of LHS students, our school, and or community.

Over the years the Leadership in Action class has become a very active and high profile class, but it should be noted that it also places students in high-stress situations that demand much time and effort as well as constant commitment. This course will be rewarding to those who enjoy a mental, emotional and physical challenge. It may be too stressful for those students who would like to enjoy a relaxing senior year.
